COMMON ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION AT 13+

CLASSICS SYLLABUS

(Revised Summer 2006 for first examination in Spring 2008)

© Independent Schools Examinations Board 2006

INTRODUCTION

This syllabus is intended to meet the needs of those candidates who may have had only a limited exposure to Latin and / or Classical Greek as well as of those who have reached a more advanced stage. Therefore the syllabus comprises different levels. In Latin, there are three levels at Common Entrance, plus an additional scholarship level; in Classical Greek there are two levels and scholarship papers are based on both levels. In both languages, Level 1 is intended for candidates who have studied Latin / Classical Greek for 1 to 2 years. Level 2 is for candidates who have studied Latin / Classical Greek for 2 to 3 years. Latin level 3 is for candidates who have a greater depth of learning.

AIMS

A course leading to this examination should:

- (i) promote a firm understanding of the essentials of the Latin or Classical Greek language;
- (ii) foster an interest in the Greek and Roman worlds.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

Candidates are expected to develop skills in:

- AO1 translation from Latin or Greek to English;
- AO2 translation from English to Latin or Greek at an appropriate level;
- AO3 manipulation of basic grammar;
- AO4 (Greek only) transliteration from Greek to English and English to Greek.

NON-LINGUISTIC STUDIES

The range of subjects on which questions are set is limited to the four topic areas listed below. Questions are broadly based and are intended to elicit comprehension of the topics covered and sound English writing rather than the bare repetition of facts. Guidance may be given as to what ought to be included in the essay questions and there is an opportunity to give a personal response to the topic being examined. There is a wealth of resources available to the teacher and the scope and methods of approaching this section are left to the teacher's discretion.

Domestic Life

Roman housing: layout and rooms; decoration; furniture; amenities

Roman slavery: sources; purchase; conditions and treatment; possibility and methods of freedom

Roman daily life: clothing; food and meals; bathing

Life and death: coming of age; marriage; death and burial

The City of Rome

Early Roman legends: Romulus and Remus; Horatius; Cloelia; Mucius Scaevola; Coriolanus; Manlius Torquatus

Entertainment: theatre; amphitheatre; circus; baths

The Army and Roman Britain

SCHEME OF ASSESSMENT

The Common Entrance examination in both Latin and Greek will comprise a 60-minute paper. Vocabulary which is not in the prescribed vocabulary list will be glossed.

LATIN – ALL LEVELS

Question 1 (15 marks)

Candidates will be asked a series of questions to test comprehension of the first paragraph (45 words or so) of a passage.

Question 2 (30 marks)

Candidates will be asked to translate into good English the second paragraph (about 50 words) of the passage.

Question 3 (20 marks)

Candidates will be asked a series of questions to test their knowledge of the grammar and their ability to give a simple English derivation based on the final paragraph (about 30 words) of the passage. They will also be asked to perform some simple manipulation of the language and some translation into Latin, using vocabulary provided.

Question 4 (10 marks)

This section will offer a choice of eight questions on non-linguistic studies (two from each of the four topic areas). Candidates are to attempt one of these questions.

CLASSICAL GREEK

LEVEL 1

Question 1 (75 marks)

SCHOLARSHIP

Latin

The Common Academic Scholarship examination (60 minutes) will comprise four questions.

Question 1 (15 marks)

Candidates will be asked a series of questions in English to test comprehension of the first section (45 words or so) of a Latin passage.

Question 2 (40 marks)

Candidates will be asked to translate into good English the second section (about 70 words) of the passage.

Question 3 (12 marks)

Candidates will be asked a series of questions to test their knowledge of the grammar and their ability to explain a simple English derivation based on the final section (about 40 words) of the passage.

Question 4 (18 marks)

Candidates will be asked to translate four English sentences of increasing difficulty into Latin. Lexical help will be given for the first two sentences only.

Classical Greek

The Common Academic Scholarship examination (60 minutes) will comprise ten sections. Sections 1–8 will be graded according to the language syllabus content. Sections 1–4 will cover content from Common Entrance Level 1 and Sections 5–8 will cover content from Common Entrance Level 2. Sections 9 and 10 will have questions on a choice of Greek civilisation topics. Candidates will be advised to answer at least five sections. They will not be allowed to use dictionaries. Markers should show total marks as a percentage for the sections attempted by the candidate, together with the numbers of the sections attempted.

Section 1 (20 marks)

Candidates will be given five sentences for translation from Greek to English, using the present indicative active (about 6 words each).

Section 2 (20 marks)

Candidates will be given five sentences for translation from Greek to English, using the imperfect indicative active (about 6 words each).

Section 3 (20 marks)

There will be a short passage for translation from Greek to English, including the future indicative active (about 30 words).

Section 4 (20 marks)

There will be five questions on derivation and grammar and five sentences for translation from English to Greek, with lexical help given (about 3 words each).

Section 5 (20 marks)

There will be five sentences for translation from Greek to English, including the present and imperfect indicative middle and passive (about 8 words each).

Section 6 (20 marks)

There will be five sentences for translation from Greek to English, including the aorist indicative active, the present imperative active and the present infinitive active (about 8 words each).

Section 7 (20 marks)

There will be a short passage for translation from Greek to English, including the present infinitive middle and passive, the present participle active, middle and passive and contracted verbs (about 40 words).

Section 8 (20 marks)

There will be five questions on derivation and grammar and five sentences for translation from English to Greek, with lexical help given (about 4 words each).

Section 9 (20 marks)

There will be a choice from two questions, one on each of two Greek civilisation topics:

- (a) Homer's Odyssey, books 9 and 12
- (b) the battles of Marathon and Salamis

Section 10 (20 marks)

There will be a choice from two questions, one on each of two Greek civilisation topics:

- (a) Athens in the fifth century (democracy, literature and the city with its buildings)
- (b) Olympia and the Olympic Games
