CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT IN MANDARIN CHINESE FOUNDATION LEVEL SPECIFICATION

© Independent Schools Examinations Board 2011

INTRODUCTION

This assessment comprises listening, speaking, reading and writing elements. It is appropriate for candidates who have undertaken 30 to 40 hours or one to two years of study.

AIMS

A course leading to this assessment should:

- (i) develop the skills which will enable candidates to understand the written and spoken language and use the language effectively for purposes of practical communication;
- (ii) give candidates opportunities to take part in a broad range of linguistic activities such as those set out in the National Curriculum for modern foreign languages;
- (iii) provide a basis for continuing study of the language and encourage independent learning, including the use of dictionaries, glossaries and ICT;
- (iv) give candidates opportunities to work with authentic language materials;
- (v) encourage interest in the target countries;
- (vi) provide enjoyment and stimulation;
- (vii) encourage positive attitudes towards the use of foreign languages and towards speakers of foreign languages.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

The examination will test candidates' ability to:

- AO show an understanding of the spoken language dealing with a range of familiar topics, and identify and note main points and specific details, including opinions;
- AO take part in short conversations, giving information and opinions;
- AO show an understanding of a number of single words, short phrases and longer texts, and identify and note main points and specific details, including opinions.
- AO produce pieces of writing, ranging from single words or short phrases to longer passages in which they seek and convey information and opinions.

SCHEME OF ASSESSMENT

The assessment is divided into four elements. Successful candidates will receive a certificate indicating a pass (50%), a merit (65%) or a distinction (80%).

SPEAKING (10%; approximately 5-10 minutes)

Candidates will be required to answer 6 basic questions about themselves. The test will be conducted and assessed by a teacher-examiner. The test will be recorded and the teacher-examiner will submit for moderation the recordings of all the candidates in the cohort, together with their mark sheets.

READING AND WRITING SECTION (60%; 45 minutes)

Instructions will be given in English. There will be 18 questions altogether testing the two skills. There will be some exercises to test pinyin and others to test Chinese characters, although the emphasis will be on character recognition rather than on character writing. See Appendix I for the vocabulary list for the pinyin vocabulary and Chinese characters required.

LISTENING (30%; approximately 10-15 minutes)

The test will be based on recorded material. Instructions will be given in English. There will be 10 questions. There will be a range of question types.
