

First name
Last name
School

CE AT 13+

ENGLISH

Core Reading

Specimen Prose Paper

Date

Time allowed: 1 hour 10 minutes

Materials

For this paper you must have the text insert (enclosed).

Instructions

The paper is divided into three sections.

Answer all questions in each section.

In Section A, circle the correct answer to each multiple-choice question.

The questions in Sections B and C should be answered in full sentences.

Information

Spelling, punctuation, grammar, vocabulary and presentation are all important and will be taken into account.

Dictionaries are not allowed.

ISEB makes every reasonable effort to obtain clearance to reproduce all third-party content that it uses in its assessment material. In the event that it has inadvertently used material without permission, or failed to acknowledge the copyright owner correctly, ISEB will be pleased to make appropriate amendments at the earliest possible opportunity.

All copyright acknowledgements are reproduced online in the ISEB Copyright Acknowledgement Booklet. This is produced for each series of examinations and is freely available to download at www.iseb.co.uk after the live examination series.

SECTION A

Read the excerpt from Walking Home, by Simon Armitage, on the insert and answer the following multiple-choice questions by circling the correct answer.

Re-read lines 1-12.

- 1. How long has the walk already lasted, by the time the passage opens?
 - a. two weeks
 - b. three days
 - c. four days
 - d. a weekend

[2]

- 2. '[t]heir tips bend and flex like fishing rods in some mad struggle' (lines 1-2). What literary technique is the writing using here to describe the tips of the pine trees?
 - a. simile
 - b. personification
 - c. onomatopoeia
 - d. alliteration

[1]

- 3. What weather conditions does the writer himself experience in this paragraph?
 - a. stormy and blustery
 - b. sunlit
 - c. dry and sheltered
 - d. rainy

[2]

Re-read lines 13-27.

- 4. Which of the following is FALSE?
 - a. The writer goes through a small gate.
 - b. The writer enters Haughton Common.
 - c. The writer is no longer in a wooded area.
 - d. The new area is empty and calm.

[2]

- 5. To show how difficult it is to walk against the wind, the writer describes his movement in terms of which physical activities:
 - a. horse-riding and cycling
 - b. mountaineering and wading up-stream
 - c. cycling and wading up-stream
 - d. driving and swimming

[2]

6. How does the writer feel when he walks against the wind?

- a. ecstatic
- b. tortured
- c. in pain
- d. shaken up

[2]

Re-read lines 28-38.

7. What does the writer find most inspiring about the trees in the sheepfold?

- a. They are stunted.
- b. They seem to enjoy being tortured by the wind.
- c. They are twisted into interesting shapes.
- d. They have endured high winds for a very long time and have survived.

[2]

8. What is the most important reason why the writer starts crying at the end of the passage?

- a. The wind is too much for him.
- b. The sun gets in his eyes and makes them water.
- c. He is moved to tears by the experience of walking outdoors.
- d. He is exhausted.

[2]

(Total marks for this section: 15)

SECTION B

Answer the following questions in full sentences.

Look again at lines 1-12.

9. List four different reasons why the writer enjoys his walk through the woods.

Specimen

10. How does the writer use language to contrast himself with the deer in lines 9-12?

Specimen

Re-read lines 13-27.

11. The writer uses two unusual words: 'chunnering' [line 16] and 'zithering' [line 19].

By referring to the sound of the words and the context within the passage, explain what you think each word means.

Specimen

[4]

12. How does the writer express the difficulty of walking into the wind? You should explore his use of:

- metaphors
- similes
- verb choices

Specimen

[6]

Re-read lines 28-38.

13. 'I open my mouth to shout MORE' (line 29).

Explain why the writer enjoys his walk so much, in your own words. Support your ideas with details from the text.

Specimen

[5]

(Total marks for this section: 25)

SECTION C

14 How does Simon Armitage persuade the reader of the wonder of the natural world in this passage?

In your answer, you should explore the ways in which he describes:

- different locations: the wood and Haughton Common
- the weather
- the feelings that his walk inspires in him

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Specimen

(Total marks for paper: 50)